Habit-forming Medicines.

Whatever may be the fact as to many of the so-called patent medicines containing injurious ingredients as broadly published in some journals of more or less influence, this publicity has certainly been of great benefit in arousing needed attention to this subject. It has, in a considerable measure, resulted in the most intelligent people avoiding such foods and medicines as may be fairly suspected of containing the injurious ingredients complained of. Recognizing this fact some time ago, Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., "took time by the forelock," as it were, and published broadcast all the ingredients of which his popular medicines are composed. Thus he has completely forestalled all harping critics and all opposition that might otherwise be urged against his medicines, because they are now OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. Furthermore, from the formula printed on every bottle wrapper, it will be seen that these medicines contain no alcohol or other habit-forming drugs. Neither do they contain any narcotics or injurious agents, their ingredients being purely vegetable, extracted from the roots of medicinal plants found growing in the depths of our American forests and of well recognized curative virtues.

Instead of alcohol, which even in small portions long continued, as in obstinate cases of diseases, becomes highly objectionable from its tendency to produce a craving for stimulants, Dr. Pierce employs chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine, which of itself is a valuable remedy in many cases of chronic diseases, being a superior demulcent, antiseptic, antiferment and supporting nutritive. It enhances the curative action of the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark and Bloodroot, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," in all bronchial, throat and lung affections attended with severe coughs. As will be seen from the writings of the eminent Drs. Grover Coe, of New York; Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College, Phila.; Scudder, of Cincinnati; Ellingwood, of Chicago; Hale, of Chicago, and others, who stand as leaders in their several schools of practice, the foregoing agents are the very best ingredients that Dr. Pierce could have chosen to make up his famous "Discovery" for the cure of not only bronchial, throat and lung affections, but also of chronic catarrh in all its various forms wherever located.

Refuses to Answer Questions.

Whether or not the ambassador of a friendly nation on arriving at an American port to take up his duties in Washington must be compelled to inform the immigration inspectors whether he has ever been in prison, an almshouse, or an insane asylum or supported by charity, or whether he is a polygamist or an anarchist, may be referred to the State Department at Washington as a result of the refusal today of Joaquin Nabuco, Brazilian ambassador, to answer these question when he arrived at New York yesterday from Liverpool.

The immigration law requires that aliens arriving at New York shall answer those and other question.

The purser of the Baltic reported to the immigration inspectors that his manifest was incomplete owing to the Ambassador's refusal. Immigration Inspector H. V. Marshall then endeavored to secure answers to the questions through Mr. Chermant, the secretary of the Brazilian Embassy, who accompanied Mr. Nabuco. Mr. Nabuco again refused. He was then told that the German and British Ambassadors had given the desired information when they arrived.

Concerning the incident Mr. Nabuco said: "I answered every question which I believed would add to the necessary statistical governmental information but when it comes to asking question regarding my beliefs and opinions it is different. I am not a visitor to this country, in the implied sense of the word. I am here as the representative of another power, and as such I am to a certain extent the guest of this nation. This is the ground I take, and for this reason alone I refused to answer certain questions. There is no friction over the affair, and I would like that nothing be said regarding it."

Upon being unofficially informed of the circumstances attending the landing of the Brazilian ambassador, Senor Nabuco, in New York harbor, brought about by his refusal to answer certain questions, Secretary Root promptly communicated with the Department of Commerce and Labor and requested that the necessary instructions be telegraphed to the collector at New York to immediately extend the courtesy of the port to the Ambassador and his secretary. It is proable an apology also will be offered to the Ambassador and a severe admonition given of the immigration officials responsible for the indignity.

Alcohol and Consumption.

The contention that alcohol is beneficial in the treatment of tuberculosis was declared to be fallacious by Dr. T. D. Crowthers, superintendent of Walnut Lodge Hospital, Hartford, Ct., in an address before the International Congress on Tuberculosis in New York yesterday. He declared that, on the contrary, alcohol is really more dangerous than the disease it is given to correct. Dr. Crowthers said:

"Alcohol as a remedy, or a preventive medicine, is a most dangerous drug. All preparations of syrups containing spirits increase rather than diminish the disease. They may cover up the bad symptons, but they increase the poisons and the soil for the growth of the consumptive germ. Rock and rye prescriptions make the conditions more incurable. Alcohol is a narcotic, and while quieting the pain, lessening the cough, diminishes the vitality and power of nature to overcome the disease. Consumption and alcoholism are twin sisters. The subsidence of the one is followed by the development of the other. A very large per cent. of the so-called cured inebriates, or persons who have stopped drinking, die of consumption or pneumonia. A large number of consumptives become inebriates and die suddenly. Consumption, associated with or following moderate or excessive drinking, is always marked by severe hemorrhages. Alcoholic parents are followed by consumptive children, and consumptive parents have alcoholic children. Statistics show that at least a third of the descendants of inebriates have consumption, and fully a fourth of the children of consumptives become spirit drinkers."

Educational Conference.

In one sense, the most interesting and important educational conference held in the South in the last ten years, is the conference called by President Alderman to meet at the University of Virginia on November 22nd to 24th. This conference will bring together the presidents of seven State universities, the presidents of all Virginia colleges, the State superintendents of education in the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and Virginia, and the professors of secondary education in the same States, and certain experts in agricultural education.

The conference is notable because it is the first thorough-going attempt on the part of those engaged in higher education to reach down to the secondary schools and aid in relating them properly to the schools below and the schools above.

Social Tragedy

Women Who Brave Death for Social Honors.

In the midst of one of the most brilliant social functions of the season, a noted society woman started suddenly from her chair with a scream of agony and fell insensible to the floor.

A few hours later the distinguished physician told her anxious husband that she was suffering from an acute case of nervous prostration brought on by female trouble, and hinted at an operation. Fortunately a friend advised her to try

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The result was that she escaped the surgeon's knife and to-day is a well woman.

The derangement of the delicate female organism sets every nerve in the body quivering with pain. Headaches, backaches, torturing bearing down pains and dragging sensations make women nervous and hysterical.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: — I was troubled for eight years with irregularities which broke down my system and brought on extreme nervousness and hysteria. I could neither enjoy my meals nor sleep nights, became easily irritated and nervous and very despondent. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved to be the only medicine which helped me. After taking the third bottle, my general health began to improve. At the end of the fifth month I was well and could attend to my household and social duties and enjoy life. MRS. CHESTER CURRY, 42 Saratoga Street, East Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Curry, whose portrait appears on the right, is the leader of the Ladies' Symphony Orchestra. The following letter is from Miss Goode, President of the Bryn Mawr Lawn Tennis Club of Chicago:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: — I tried many different remedies to try to build up my system, which had become run down from loss of proper rest and unseasonable hours, but nothing seemed to help me. Mother is a great advocate of Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles, having used it herself some years ago with great success. So I began to take it, and in less than a month I was able to be out of bed and out of doors, and in three months I was entirely well. Really I have never felt so strong and well as I have since. MISS CORA GOODE, 355 E. Chicago Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Pinkham's advice is free to all. Her address is Lynn, Mass.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cures Where Others Fail

No American State, unless it be Wisconsin, possesses an ideal system of secondary education. In most of them, an unfortunate gap exists between the elementary schools and the colleges, and by reason of this gap, one-half of the most capable children of the commonwealths have no open road to a complete education.

Fortunate Missourians.

"When I was a druggist, at Livonia, Mo.," writes T. J. Dwyer, now of Graysville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong today. One was trying to sell his property and move to Arizona, but after using New Discovery a short time he found it unnecessary to do so. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest Cough and Cold cure and Throat and Lung healer. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, 50c and $1. JEWELRY.

THE DINING-ROOM

is used oftener than almost any other room in the house. That is why it should be made the most comfortable spot, and be pleasingly arranged.

Without cut glass and silverware a dining room makes little impression and is hardly home like. A few pieces tastily arranged will make a better effect than many of them placed indiscriminately.

A silver fern dish puts a finish to the table and livens up the room. A silver set is needed to decorate the sideboard. A few cut glass pieces so arranged as to contrast with the tea set will make the sideboard as it should be. The cut glass required are decanters, berry bowls and fruit dishes. The only other silver piece that should be in evidence is the candelabra.

If you want your dining room to be just so have the bread trays and other trays of silver. Even the crumb tray and scraper should be silver-plated.

The steel knives should have silver-plated handles to match the silver-plated spoons, knives and forks.

If you are not satisfied unless your dining-room is properly fitted, you are undoubtedly particular about your own person. It is just as well that you are. A little attention to your ownself begets attention from others. Wear a diamond ring or two, a locket, watch and chain. As the chain is more in evidence than the watch or the locket, you may as well wear the best there is—the guaranteed Z-K Gold Chain.

Let us fit out the dining-room as well as yourself. Prices very reasonable.

FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 16, 1906.

IN THE effort to scare Congress into authorizing the construction of additional naval vessels this winter, the Navy Department is holding out the threat that if there is a cessation in the building of war ships by this government Germany's navy will soon deprive the United States of the position it now holds as third naval power of the world. At present the experts at the Navy Department say the United States is easily third in naval strength, with England first and France second. But the German naval programme, which is being steadily prosecuted, will carry her ahead by 1910 unless the government consents to lay down new ships. Secretary Bonaparte is expected to urge Congress this winter to authorize the construction of several additional vessels, including the 20,000 ton battleship for which Congress last winter directed the Department to secure plans for submission to it at the coming session. Beside the five battleships and two armored cruisers which have been recently put in commission the United States still has 11 first-class battleships under construction. Nearly all of these are rapidly nearing completion, and will be put in commission within the next few months. In addition to these ships there are four armored cruisers to be added to the fleet.

THE Italian government stands by its award of an armor contract to the Midvale Company, of Philadelphia, and announces to the protesting Italians that if they want armor contracts they must learn how to compete with the Americans. Concerning the action of the Italians the Philadelphia Record comments as follows:

What incredible cruelty! We will not expose any of our manufacturers to foreign competition even when the goods are to be used in the Republic of Panama, which is a foreign country. It is worth noticing, too, that while American wages are the highest in the world the Italian are among the lowest in Europe, and yet the American armor [illegible] than the Italian [illegible] speech in Panama [illegible] President Roosevelt [illegible] party not in power [illegible] that [illegible] Panama regarded revolution as the same way to change government, and extended the assurance that the United States was willing to help Panama. He said the only interference by the United States would be to help Panama in future. This sounded strangely inconsistent to those who knew the part Mr. Roosevelt had taken in the revolution by which Panama seceded from Colombia, became a republic and then ceded the canal zone to the United States. But modern politicians and republican presidents cannot afford to be consistent!

COUNT BONI is now minus a wife and Senator Platt has one in name only. Boni has vanished, a fugitive from creditors, after having attained a world-wide notoriety for profligacy, cruelty and worthlessness generally and he has but few to sympathize with him. Madame Gould, as she is now pleased to be called, is free from the title that has cost her so dearly, and is an object lesson to such of her class who seek foreign alliances. Senator Platt furnishes another corroboration of the truth of the saying that while the hoary head may be found in the paths of righteousness, it is not always following that of wisdom.

CONSIDERABLE stir was created in the Baptist State Convention in Richmond yesterday morning when Rev. Dr. C. T. Taylor, one of the strongest workers in southwest Virginia, delivered an argument against old-time religion. He saw no use, he said, in shouting and in the popular habit of "wallowing before the pulpit," or crawling around on the hands and knees, under the impression or delusion that such manifestations were sure forerunners of moral chastity and santification. Some have termed the proceedures condemned by Dr. Taylor "acrobatic religion."

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Nov. 16.

Acting Secretary Murray of the Department of Commerce and Labor has not decided what action shall be taken as to the case of Immigration Inspector H. T. Marshall, of New York, who, it was charged, asked annoying questions of the Brazilian Ambassador, Joacquim Nabuco, upon his arrival in New York Thursday. Immigration Commissioner Watchorn, who was directed by telephone Thursday evening to investigate, arrived from New York this morning and hurried at once to a conference with acting Secretary Murray. From the report made by Commissioner Watchorn the case is not nearly so serious as at first reported and it is not likely that Inspector Marshall will lose his position. Mr. Watchorn declares that the only questions which Ambassador Nabuco refused to answer were those as to nativity and age; that he was not asked, nor was any person in his party requested to say whether they had been in prison, an asylum or almshouse. When the ambassador refused to give this information as to himself, his secretary, secretary's wife and child, and his own ambassador, the inspector did not press the matter. It is said, however, that the purser on the Baltic did insist upon answers to all questions as required by law but that when Mr. Nabuco refused to give them, he gave up the attempt and in his report said he hoped the fine of $10 for failure to make a complete report would be withheld in his case. The law provides a fine of $10 in each case where a purser does not obtain all information from aliens coming to this country as required in the list of questions in the blanks furnished to them. It is understood at the Department of Commerce and Labor that Ambassador Nabuco is not angry at the officials of the government but that he was chagrined by the purser's persistence. According to information received all information desired was given as to the servants attending the ambassadorial party.

Senor Nabuco, the Ambassador of Brazil, this morning personally assured the Secretary of State, that there was no incident attached to his arrival in this country such as was described in the morning papers. Secretary Root called upon the ambassador early today for the purpose of welcoming back to this city and at the same time to offer his regrets in case it should develop that he had been subjected to any indignity or embarrassment by any official of this government. "There was nothing of the sort occurred," said the ambassador. "That story must have been written by a dramatist." The incident is closed so far as the Brazilian ambassador is concerned.

It is stated in high official circles here that the unlimited resources of the Standard Oil trust will not enable it to delay unnecessarily a trial on the issues as laid down at St. Louis yesterday by Attorney General Moody. The judges who compose the Circuit Court of the Eastern district of Missouri are looked to for prompt and decisive action. They come from States in which the oil trust has made itself particularly obnoxious. Judge W. H. Sanborn is from St. Paul, W. H. Van Devanter from Cheyenne, Wyoming, W. C. Hook, from Leavenworth, Kas., and E. B. Adams from St. Louis. The defendants are entitled to one month in which to enter an appearance and sixty days in which to demur or answer. It is believed here that the case will be disposed of by the Circuit Court and be on the docket of the Supreme Court inside of a year. The Department of Justice desires to bring the case to trial at the earliest possible moment.

The government purposes to buy a site for the proposed postoffice building at Pittsburg, Pa., at the exact market value of the land selected. Secretary Shaw has chosen the Leslie-Armstrong site, near the Union depot. The price asked was $985,000. The limit of the appropriation is one million dollars. The charge of Congressman Burke and other leading Pittsburgers that the holders of the option stood to win a clear half million convinced Secretary Shaw that in justice to the government the value of the property should be fixed by condemnation proceedings. [illegible] will be begun at once, it is understood, although Congressman Barchfeld other Pittsburg men were again [illegible] with the Secretary today.

Edward Grant, colored, who was convicted of the murder of his common law wife, Eva Barnes, was hanged with little ceremony at the District jail this morning. The drop fell at 7:30 and the body was cut down 28 minutes later. Grant walked to his death as unconcernedly as if nothing was about to happen. Before going to the scaffold, Grant confessed to his spiritual adviser.

Secretary Shaw has taken a jab at the American Smelting and Refining Company, otherwise known as the metal trust. A day or two ago when the Treasury Department was asked to pay 72 cents an ounce for silver bullion, Secretary Shaw refused to buy at that price. The American Smelting Company has been supplying nearly all the silver that the department has been purchasing since August 1, and it has been gradually boosting the price, until now it is about seven cents an ounce higher than when the buying commenced. So when the Secretary's refusal to pay the latest price asked was announced, the Smelting Company wrote to him anxiously inquiring what was the matter. Secretary Shaw replied that the Treasury Department did not intend to increase its stock of silver at such prices and would cease purchasing for the present. He made it clear to the company that the department did not propose to pay tribute to any "combine," nor would it submit to being gouged when it was endeavoring to accomodate the public needs for small change. He intimated that the price of silver would have to come down before any more purchases were made.

The track for the fall meet of the Washington Jockey Club which opens at Benning this afternoon should be in fairly good conditions despite the fact that snow and rain fell nearly all of yesterday. By the time the Columbia Handicap, the opening day feature, fourth on the card, starts, it is believed the course will be pretty well beaten down as the sun is out bright this morning and a crisp breeze will help to dry the track. The conviction of Bookmaker Davis on Wednesday has caused uncertainly among the bettors as the bookies will not be allowed to have their regular stand and must mix with the patrons. The Club announces however that the fourteen days programme will be carried out no matter what becomes of the bookies. A large force of detectives headed by Robert Pinkerton is on the ground. Today's card includes six events. It is estimated that 1,000 persons came from New York last night on a special train and a large crowd is expected at the course this afternoon.

He declares he has helped men and attempted in his humble way to be of some service to his country, but was never connected with fradulent schemes.

With his 86-year-old mother as a spectator, George Seafle, a retired Philadelphia saloon-keeper, yesterday fired three bullets into his head. The strained attitude between the majority and minority factions of the Eastern State Hospital investigation committee ended in a rupture Wednesday evening, and the majority committee has since been in session in the State Capitol and the minority in Senator Sadler's room at his hotel. They have been in separate session all day preparing their reports. The rupture is said to have been due to the majority refusing to hear Chairman Sadler read his written report. A well defined rumor is current to the effect that Dr. L. S. Foster, superintendent of the Eastern State Hospital, will be deposed by the General Hospital Board at the meeting which takes place on Tuesday in Williamsburg, irrespective of any report or reports that may be made by the legislative investigating committee.

The R. F. & P. Railway.

The announcement of the appointment of John G. Rodgers as president of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railway, to succeed Judge Josiah Leake, who resigned, created a flutter in Richmond where not only the interests of the city are very closely interwoven with its operations, but because of the large State ownership in the road. This move changes a purely local interest, as it has long been regarded to be merely a branch of the great Pennsylvania system, placing the city at the mercy of that corporation. The news came in a private telegram from Third Vice President Rea of the Pennsylvania, saying Judge Leake's resignation had been accepted and that John G. Rodgers would be chosen. Mr. Rea is also president of the Richmond-Washington Company, which is the holding company representing the Chesapeake and Ohio, Baltimore and Ohio, Atlantic Coast Line, Seaboard Air Line and Pennsylvania, and in the last few days representations have been made by these interests to the holding company, and the telegram was the answer to these. Only a few days ago Governor Swanson asked for a conference with Mr. Rea, and his telegram is perhaps intended as a reply to this request also. It was said yesterday that it is possible that the holding company may be enjoined from carrying through the new arrangement. Neither Governor Swanson, Auditor Marye or the railroad officials will express an opinion.

It was announced last night that Vice President Rea, of the Pennsylvania, has acceded to the request of Governor Swanson for a conference in regard to the attempt of the Pennsylvania to absorb the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac, after having been advised that his failure to conciliate Virginia, which is a heavy stockholder of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac, would mean that the State corporation commission would tax all roads in Virginia so heavily that the State would recoup itself for any losses entailed by reason of traffic being transferred to the other lines. The conference will be held in Richmond on Monday.

Today's Telegraphic News

Grace Brown Brutally Murdered.

Herkimer, N. Y., Nov. 16.—That Grace Brown was brutally murdered on the bank of Big Moose Lake by Chester E. Gillette and her body thrown in the lake is the startling contention of the prosecution in the trial of young Gillette. Until today it had been thought that the prosecution would try to show that Gillette had lured the young woman into a boat and, when out of sight of any one on land, had thrown her overboard.

Held secret until today, the autopsy showed that Miss Brown's eyes had been gouged out, her skull fractured and her body covered with bruises. The body showed that the girl had made a hard struggle to fight off her assailant. The body apparently had been dragged through underbrush. No water was found in the lungs. If the girl had been thrown overboard while alive, her lungs would have filled with water.

The prosecution will endeavor to show that Gillette beat the girl to death with a heavy weapon unseen by any one, dragged the body to the lake, threw it into the boat and rowed to a point where it was thrown into the water.

A new panel of sixty talesmen has been drawn from which to select a jury. Neither side has exhausted its peremptory challenges. Eight jurors are in the box.

Want Order Rescinded.

New York, Nov. 16.—Herbert Parsons, chairman of the republican county committee, was busy today, explaining how it all happened. Resolutions calling on President Roosevelt to rescind his order dishonorably discharging negro soldiers of the 25th infantry, were slipped through the county committee last night. Mr. Parsons was thunderstruck when Gilchrist Stewart, a negro orator, offered his resolution, which dealt none too gently with the President. A burst of colored oratory in which Roosevelt was even more strongly condemned accompanied the resolutions. Stewart was in good voice and nothing could head him off. Mr. Parsons who was in the chair, shifted uneasily. Stewart talked ahead. Other members of the committee, taking in the situation, enjoyed the fun and when Stewart finished voted for the resolutions. The best Parsons could do was to have a few of the most objectionable features cut out.

Work of Footpads and Burglars.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 16—Emboldened by their recent successes, burglars and footpads continued their work last night while the police are still working incessantly to find the perpetrators of the Smith and McMillan murders. Mrs. Alexander Swick was choked and robbed, being compelled to reveal the hiding place of her money. Miss Elizabeth Munhall fired at burglars and frightened them away last night. John Burke was held up and robbed in Allegheny. Last night at Akron, Ohio, Guy Hantsell, night operator at the Erie depot, was held up by two men and robbed of $19.90. At Blairsville, Pa., last night, five or more houses were entered by robbers, while in Beaver Falls, Pa., William Leaken was robbed last evening of $400 in money.

Demanded Their Pay.

Constantinople, Nov. 16.—Unpaid sailors of the Turkish navy created a disturbance in front of the palace today which almost resulted in a riot. The seamen succeeded in calling the Sultan's attention to their grievance, and he at once ordered that their wages be paid. It is probable that several of the ministers will lose their positions, if not their heads, as a consequence of their neglect of paying the men. Accompanied by their officers, a great crowd of seamen assembled in front of the Yildiz Kiosk and shouted "We want our money." When the Sultan learned the cause of the trouble, he flew into a rage. He threatened every minister in anyway responsible with dismissal and ordered instant payment of the sailors.

Senator Platt.

New York, Nov. 16.—The retirement of Senator Thos. C. Platt from Congress is regarded today as the probable outcome of the latest development of his domestic scandal. If the aged senator returns to Washington, it is predicted he will find his position so disagreeable that he will be forced to retire. Political pressure will also be applied to assist the senator to reach a decision to get out. He has outlived his usefulness to the party, they point out, and he owes it to his party to give way. In connection with the announced separation of Senator Platt and his wife, the latest rumor current is that Mr. Platt made a settlement of $500,000 on Mrs. Platt. By some the money consideration is placed at an even one million dollars.

The President at Panama.

Panama, Nov. 16.—President Roosevelt took a day off yesterday, owing to the heavy rain. Today he started out over the ground to inquire into every detail of the canal work. The early days of the President's visit have been devoted largely to an exchange of courtesies with Panama officials. These were closed for the present with a ball last night given by President Amador at the Commercial Club. Senor Lefevre, President Amador's secretary, delivered an address of welcome and the President replied with a few complimentary and witty remarks.

Attempt to Murder Major von Sternburg

Berlin, Nov. 16.—An attempt to murder Major von Sternburg, an officer of the Grenadier Guards and brother of Baron Speck von Sternburg, German Ambassador to the United States, was made today by an unknown man at Lichterfelde, a suburb of Berlin. The stranger forced his way into the major's presence, threw him to the ground and half throttled him before servants could pull the fellow off. The man was arrested. The motive for his attack is unknown.

Train Wrecked.

Reading, Pa., Nov. 16.—A south bound Philadelphia and Reading express train leaving Reading at 8:35 last night, was wrecked at 9:25 about half a mile north of Linfield. One man was killed, three were injured, and one is missing. Delayed by the snow, an extra freight train southbound was but half way on a siding when the express rushing past snow clogged signals, crashed into the caboose. Fifteen freight cars were demolished. Traffic was delayed for several hours.

The Boer Insurrection.

Capetown, Nov. 16.—The insurrrection in Cape Colony is growing and the authorities are manifesting concern in the movements of Ferriera and the bands operating in the northwest section of the colony. Colonists from German territory are on their way to join the insurrectionary bands. Four Boer transport drivers who have been with the German expedition operating against the Herreros have headed a band to join Ferreira. Orders have been issued to the German frontier stations to prevent men from the German colony crossing the frontier. One of the prisoners captured is said to be Ferreira's brother.

Charged With Malpractice.

Philadelphia, Nov. 16.—Many heavily veiled women attended the hearing this morning at the Central Station of the two women and one man captured in a raid on a malpractice establishment. It was rumored that several of these partly disguised women were the parents of young girls who had left their homes and presumably gone to this alleged den on north Sixteenth street. Officers who had run out the case asked for a further postponement, and it was immediately granted. Seven women, who confessed to having gone to the house to undergo unlawful operations, were taken in the raid.

To be Granted a New Trial.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 16.—The Supreme Court granted today a new trial to David E. Sherrick, former auditor of State. Sherrick was sent to the penitentiary April 13, 1906, to serve from two to twenty-one years, having been convicted in the criminal court of Marion county, of embezzling State funds while auditor of State. An appeal to the Supreme Court for a new trial on the ground that one of the jurymen who convicted him had declared openly before the trial that Sherrick ought to be in the pen.

Perilous Situation.

Portland, Oregon, Nov. 16.—With the raging waters gathering slowly around the little island on which they are marooned by floods, forty men and women and children are awaiting death today. The island is at the confluence of the Columbia and Cowlitz rivers. Help has been sent from here, but may not reach them before the engulfing waters rise and sweep the refugees away. No one could live in an attempt to swim the current to the island with a rope, but the steamer Burton is racing to the rescue.

Will be Compelled to Appear.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 16.—Standard Oil influence will not be effective in saving the three missing Cleveland officials of the company from the humiliation of appearing in court at Findlay to answer to the indictments returned against them as directors. Prosecutor David insists that all three of the indicted men shall appear personally. None of the fugitives had returned to Cleveland this morning.

Another Slump in Standard Oil.

New York, Nov. 16.—Standard Oil stock slumped again today and sold down to $532 a share, the lowest price in many years. Sales of stock from shareholders all over the country on fears that the government may dissolve the trust are the cause for the downfall plunge of the last few days.

Damage by Flood.

Spokane, Wash., Nov., 16.—With wires down, railroads tied up and roads turned into rivers, only the most meagre reports of the damage caused by the storm can be obtained today.

Bodies Recovered.

Douglas, Arizona, Nov. 16.—Twelve bodies have been recovered from the wrecked silica and lime quarry near Lee station, where an explosion of dynamite occurred yesterday. Three more men are believed to be buried under the debris. The exact cause of the explosion will never be known, as the men handling the dynamite were blown to atoms. Three of the victims were Americans, two of whom have been identified as Victor Shell and Thomas Shell. The others were Mexicans.

Rescued from Schooner.

Hull, Mass., Nov. 16.—The crew at the Point Allerton life saving station here made a thrilling rescue today when they took four men from the wrecked schooner Mary Lee Newton, a New York coal boat. The schooner went on the rocks last night in the terrible northeaster that raged along the whole New England coast. Her crew clung to the rigging for nearly 12 hours before the Point Allerton men saw them.

Fatal Blow.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 14.—Mike Ward, the pugilist, died today from the effects of a knockout punch delivered in the ninth round of a fight with Harry Lewis, last night. The principals were arrested. Ward and Lewis were mixing it up when Lewis shot a terrific upper cut to Ward's jaw. Ward went to the mat and did not revive. He suffered concussion of the brain.

Killed in a Saloon.

Los Angeles, Cala., Nov. 16.—Two men are dead and three mortally wounded today as the result of an attempt to hold up a saloon. The place was crowded when two masked men ordered all hands up. A policeman commenced firing and after an exchange of shots one robber fell. Three of the crowd were wounded and the policeman killed. The second robber fled.

New York Stock Market.

Mattichie and Esau Moore on one side, and George Adams and Henry Mullen on the other, in a dispute over a land division. Twenty-five shots were fired. According to the report, Esau Moore was killed and Mullen was desperately wounded. Further trouble is feared.

The railroads of the entire country stand ready to accept the standard of wages set by the Pennsylvania and to grant the employes an increase of 10 per cent in lieu of all other demands. The sum which the railroads are willing to distribute among more than 1,296,000 employes, would aggregate between $81,000,000 and $82,000,000 annually.

Rather than deprive her tiny dog of a play ground for exercise, Miss Josephine J. Wendell, an elderly spinster, has refused to sell a fifty-foot lot adjoining her mansion on Fifth avenue, New York. Miss Wendell has declined $650,000 for the ground.

The three-masted schooner Lydia H. Roper, of Norfolk, Va., and loaded with lumber is off Sandy Hook, leaking badly. Her captain has signaled for a towboat.

Wife Surprised Senator Platt.

Senator Thomas C. Platt was at his home, in the Hotel Gotham, New York, yesterday in a weaker state than usual, it is said, owing to the fact that he exposed himself to the raw, damp weather for a trip down to the office of the United States Express Company in the afternoon, in addition to being distressed mentally over the annoyances that the published reports of his separation from his wife have caused him. Worse than these latter were the statements that his wife and her coachman, Hedges, about six weeks ago, had burst into a room in the house of Mrs. Mary LaMonte, in west Thirty-ninth street, and had found him there, according to some versions, with a young woman, and, according to other stories, only with the slippers of a young woman in the room.

When Senator Platt tottered downstairs from the hotel to a carriage yesterday to go to his office a reporter asked hime if it were true that he had been found in the room.

"All lies, damn lies," qmavered the senior Senator from New York, in a high voice. He said no more. When he returned home late in the afternoon he was plainly tired out. He could not stand up in the elevator, but had to be supported by his son, Frank Platt, and a valet. He went to bed very early, and it was given out that he was not at all well. No doctor was summoned, however.

According to stories in circulation, Mrs. Platt, with Hedges and a detective, watched the LaMonte House from the Hotel Navarre and saw Mr. Platt go in there. A little later another carriage drove up and a young woman got out. Later on the spying party broke into the place, and found Mr. Platt there. Mrs. Platt took away the high-heeled slippers. She merely told Mr. Platt that she wanted to get him right, or words to that effect. Mrs. LaMonte says that she comes from the same town as Senator Platt and that she has known him for many years.

She said that for 15 years he had had a room in the house and had stayed there often. She said that Mrs. Janeway, as she called Mrs. Platt, had met the Senator there before they were married. She said that Senator Platt was too distinguished a man for her to discuss his affairs further for the newspapers.

Mrs. Platt and her daughter were taken down to the morning train by Hedges, the coachman. They went shopping when they got to New York. Hedges went over to the postoffice at Highland Mills. He was well dressed and appeared in excellent spirits. He amused several persons about the postoffice by some of his grimaces and gestures.

It is now stated that the next House will stand republicans, 219; democrats 165. Vacancies exist in two districts, which, when elections are held, will more than likely add two votes to the republican strength.

Stolen Goods Found.

A miscellaneous assortment of merchandise, alleged to have been stolen at different times from the Southern Railway cars, was secured by the police last night, when the house of John Robinson, 121 south Lee street, was searched by Chief Goods and officer Henderson. Robinson was arrested on the charge of larceny, and his son, who gave his name as J. H. Robinson, was also taken in custody for examination. The police believe further investigation will bring important developments. A large express wagon was requird to haul the goods which were sized by the police. There were trunks, chests, boxes, packages, and single articles. It is estimated that the total valuation will reach $300 or $400.

The warrant charges the prisoner with the larceny of a lot of pistols and cartridges from the firm of Carlin, Sons & Co., of this city, June 15. The first intimation which directed suspicion toward Robinson resulted from a message received at the station house yesterday from Captain Boardman, of Washington, concerning the theft of a lot of cartridges. Officer Young went to Washington and examined the cartridges which had been secured there, and later the store of a local second-hand dealer was searched, and the warrant for Robinson's arrest was issued.

Until a short time ago Robinson was employed at the Fairfax street freight depot of the Southern road. His son has been employed as a conductor on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon road.

Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning committed the Robinsons to jail for ten days and fixed their bail at $2,000 each. It is reported that other arrests will be made.

Attempt to Snatch Pocketbook.

While Miss Sadie Sullivan, daughter of the late Andrew Sullivan, living at 506 Prince street, and two companions were walking on King street, near the corner of Alfred street, shortly before 10 o'clock last night, a party of four negroes passed, one of whom attempted to snatch the pocketbook which Miss Sullivan held in her hand. She was quick enough, however, to grasp the article firmly and retain its possession. The negroes were followed by two young men who had witnessed the act, and Officers Beach and Henderson, who were summoned, placed the negroes under arrest. Miss Sullivan and her companions identified one of the prisoners, giving his name as James Nelson, as the man who attempted the robbery. The others gave their names as Joseph Todd, Mandly Minor, and George Redd. All were locked up. The four negroes were arraigned in the Police Court this morning when James Nelson, who it was alleged, attempted to secure the young woman's pocketbook, was sent to jail for six months by Justice Caton. George Redd, Joseph Todd and Mandley Minor, his accomplices were sent to the chain gang for 30 days.

An Alexandria Architect.

Yesterday it was announced that among the designs submitted by the leading architects of Washington, Baltimore and New York, for the new hotel, the Randolph, to be built at Pennsylvania avenue and 14th street, Washington, was that of the firm of Vogt & Morrill, which was awarded the second prize of $500. Mr. Morrill has made Alexandria his home for about four years, during which period he has made many friends and has become much attached to this city. He states that in the near future he hopes to open a branch office here, as Alexandria offers a good field for an architect with all the building which is in prospect. Mr. Morrill since his return from Europe, where he spent a year in the post graduate study of his profession, has filled the position of senior designer in the government architect's office in Washington.

Imagined He Was Attacked.

Some excitement was caused near the intersection of Prince and Lee streets last night by a drunken man who imagined he was being assaulted. He called loudly for the police and when Officers Bell and Jones responded he told them he had been shamefully beaten. The officers were unable to find any evidences that he had been attacked, and attempted to induce him to go home. Seeing that he would not heed their suggestions, the officers locked him up. The man was brought before the Police Court this morning when he still asserted that he had been attacked. He said he was a railroad man and had been paid off yesterday. According to the custom of some of his confreres, he immediately drank himself drunk. He was dismissed by Justice Caton.

Sent Back to Washington.

Among the cases in the Police Court this morning was that of Clarence Davis, colored, aged 14 years, who had been arrested for stealing papers from a newsstand. He acknowledged that he was guilty of the charge. It appeared from the evidence that the parents of the youth live in Washington, and that they sent him to a relative in this city in order to get rid of him. The relative (an old woman) said she was unable to do anything with the boy, as he is incorrigible. Justice Caton directed that the boy be placed on a train and sent back to Washington.

Wedding.

Mr. Marshall Madison Gilliam was married yesterday afternoon to Miss Emma Stewart at the home of her brother, Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, pastor of the church of the Covenant, in Richmond. Mr. Gilliam is one the best-known lawyers in Richmond, Miss Stewart is a daughter of the late John W. Stewart of this city, and has relatives and a host of friends in Alexandria.

Hall will retire from the firm, and in the early spring will leave this city for an extended tour of Europe. Mr. Edgar Warfield will continue the business at the old stand. This is one of the oldest firms in Alexandria, Messrs. Warfield & Hall having conducted business at this stand during the past forty years.

Negro Murderer Killed.

Cornered in a clump of woods after a long chase, Will Harris, the negro desperado who shot and killed two policemen and three negroes Tuesday, made his last stand at Fletchers, 12 miles from Ashville, N. C. The posse surrounded the negro and poured a ceaseless fire on the hidden man, who concealed himself with branches and stumps of trees, from which he fired at his pursuers. Two of the posse were shot. Harris was finally driven from his ambush and shot to pieces.

It was a long chase. Harris was reported near Fletchers and the posse went in pursuit. The trail led to a dense woods. Every bush and copsing was whacked in search for the negro. The advancing men were halted by a shout from a clump of bushes.

"Get back or I'll shoot you," came the voice. It was Harris.

The armed men fell back, and, detouring the woods quickly, surrounded the murderer. Surrounded on all sides, Harris opened fire. His aim was deadly and two men fell. His pursuers poured shot after shot into the bushes and still the negro kept up his fire. His ammunition ran low and at last a hand was raised above the brush holding a handkerchief.

John A. Roebling, jr., leader of the posse, ordered his men to cease firing. Harris arose from his hiding place, his face covered with blood and his clothes torn from the chase.

"You've got me," was all he said. Roebling moved forward to place the prisoner under arrest. He wanted to save him from being lynched. There was a shot from the rear and Harris fell to the ground. Roebling turned away and Harris's body was filled with bullets.

The posses have been composed of the best citizens and the negro population has aided in the search and contributed toward a relief fund for the families of the dead policemen.

The Methodists.

The second day of the session of the Methodist conference opened in Portsmouth yesterday.

Bishop Hendrix named the committee to look into the matter of changing the time for holding the conference.

Eighteen applications for help were presented to the board of church extension.

A fraternal telegram conveying the greetings of the Baptist General Association, now in session at Richmond, was read and a reply was ordered.

"Who are admitted on trial?" was the first minute question; and in reply the following candidates were presented James T. Moore, Richmond district J. R. Laton, Rappahannock circuit; F. O. Smith (son of Bishop Coke Smith) and John W. Shackford, Lynchburg district.

The following were received into full convention: Charles H. Fielding, Henry C. Pfeffer, Boyd C. Hudson, Walter A. Jeffries John C. Granberry, jr., Virginius R. Turner, John W. Cuthrell, George T. Forrester, Joseph E. Hearn, J. M. Rowland, Harry L. Weston, William E. Edwards.

Rev. W. W. Pinson, assistant secretary of the mission board of the general conference, addressed the conference. There is a shortage of preachers in the Virginia conference, he said, and the shortage is growing each year.

The reason assigned in some quarters is that in almost any other calling there are greater and more attracting possibilities than in the ministry. The lack of candidates is also attributed to a lack of Christian training in the home. The number of applicants this year for admission is smaller than at any time for years.

Dr. R. H. Bennett, superintendent of the State Anti-Saloon League, requested that the conference appoint a committee on temperance.

Mr. Roosevelt Sees Canal.

President Roosevelt left the flagship Louisiana at 7.30 yesterday morning and landed at Colon shortly afterward. He was met by Canal Commissioner Shonts Chief Engineer Stevens and other officials. All the schoolchildren of Colon were assembled in groups about the pier where the President landed and sang "The Star-Spangled Banner" and "America."

Some time later President and Senora Amador and the Bishop of Panama reached the spot and greeted Mr. Roosevelt. The entire party then boarded a train and left Colon, steaming in the direction of Panama in order to enable the presidential party to have a good look at all the points of interest along the route.

President Roosevelt was the guest of President Amador yesterday evening.

In order to carry out the presidential programme special switches have been arranged to enable the special train to go to La Boca and allow Mr. Roosevelt to inspect the Pacific entrance to the canal.

From La Boca President Roosevelt went yesterday afternoon to Panama City. The streets were filled with people and the balconies overlooking the line of march were crowded to their capacity.

The Baptists.

The Virginia Baptist Convention disposed of a large amount of business in Richmond yesterday and heard several addresses along the line of church work.

Danville was selected as the next place of meeting, and Rev. S. H. Thompson, of Bluefield, W. Va., was selected to preach the annual sermon.

The report of the Baptist Orphange, at Salem, shows more than $22,000 was received for its support during the year, including a gift of $5,000 from H. W. Straley.

The report of the board of education showed that over $5,000 had been expended in aiding young ministers to secure a theological course, and President Collins, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, delivered a stirring address on "The Making of a Man."

The report of state missions, by Wm. Ellyson, chairman, created enthusiasm, and showed that the work of carrying the gospel to remote districts in the state had made fine progress.

How to Reach the North Pole.

Fridtjof Nansen, the Arctic explorer, has been convinced by the explorations of Lieutenant Peary that the proper method to reach the North Pole is to allow a ship to drift with the huge ice packs. Such an attempt will require probably five or six years. Nansen expresses his opinion in an article in The Reader. Lieutenant Peary, it is said, wants to make another effort next year to reach the pole.

Alexandria Gazette.
FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 16, 1906.

Mr. Bryan.

In an open letter to the democratic members of Congress, Mr. Bryan said:

"The House rules put it within the power of a few men to control legislation. The committee on rules is so small that it does not represent the country; it represents no one but the Speaker. The committee on rules should be larger. If it were composed of fifteen members selected from various sections of the country, it would be possible for the House to be brought into closer harmony with the entire nation, and it would not be so easy to strangle legislation. The Speaker has too much power.

"While the democratic party cannot make the rules of the House until it secures a majority, it can and should begin its fight now. The present custom enables the minority leader to coerce by arbitrary authority, whereas he should lead by argument and by superior wisdom."

Labor and Politics.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has converted union labor to politics. His plan for fighting at the ballot box was adopted by 350 delegates to the convention yesterday at Minneapolis. Two resolutions were introduced, looking toward continuing his work, backed by the federation. One was to the effect that a commission be sent by the American Federation of Labor to the Australian provinces to study politics of trades unionism there, and the other was that rules be formulated perfecting a system of politics to be advanced by the Federation.

Norfolk, Va., was decided upon as the next place for holding the national gathering.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters; which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Biliousness, Neuralgia, weakness and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements. A wonderful Tonic. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. 50 cents.
